Confederation Centre Youth Chorus Holds Annual Awards Dinner April 10

Charlottetown – The Confederation Centre Youth Chorus will hold its 31st annual fundraising dinner and awards presentation on Thursday, April 10, beginning at 6:30 p.m. with a reception at Mavor's Bistro.

Kathy Hambly, Executive Director of the Greater Charlottetown Area Chamber of Commerce, will emcee the event. Following dinner in Memorial Hall, the Youth Chorus will perform selections by Vivaldi, J.S. Bach, Palestrina and Eleanor Daley.

The highlight of the evening will be the presentation of 17 awards to Chorus members for qualities of loyalty, enthusiasm, singing ability, self-discipline, progress, musical potential and leadership. Numerous well-known local citizens who support the work of the Confederation Centre's adult and youth choirs provide the awards, some of which have been given out since the days of the Boys' Choir in the 1970s.

The Confederation Centre Youth Chorus provides Island youth, aged 8-20, with a unique opportunity to develop their musical skills at home and abroad. Throughout its history, the chorus has performed in many concerts at the Confederation Centre and at community events. The Chorus recorded a CD entitled On Tour (2003) and have toured extensively, travelling to France, Belgium, Great Britain, Washington D.C., New York City, British Columbia, Quebec, Ontario, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

The 45-member touring choir performed at the dedication ceremony for the newly-restored Canadian National Vimy Memorial in France on April 9, 2007, the 90th anniversary of the Battle
